

LPX - Estreito B Oil Pipeline

Works Description

Construction and assembly of the Xavier Well - LPX - Estreito B East oil pipeline

Relevant Features

The section from the Xavier Well East (LPX) to the UPANEMA station, was built in DN10" piping, 0.250" thickness, X-60 steel, 44-Km extension . The section from the UPANEMA station to the Estreito B station was built in DN 12" piping, X-60 steel, 0.330"thickness, 44-Km extension. Approximately 80,000 m3 of rock dismantling performed by nine (9) excavators equipped with hydraulic hammers and Caterpillar D-9 and D-7 bulldozers with ripper. Large number of pig launchers and receivers assembling and several interconnections to stations.

Construction Period

10/23/00 to 05/26/01

Location

Rio Grande do Norte

Client

Petrobras

