

Reform of P-34 Platform

Works Description

Reform, adaptation and improvements of the Plant FPSO-34 (Floating Process, Storage and Offloading Unit) for crude oil, to enable the vessel to operate in Jubarte Offshore Field at Campos Basin.

Relevant Features

Repair and maintenance works of all ship surfaces, including measuring of thickness of hull plates and paint. Adaptations in the lodging facilities, in the ventilation and air conditioning systems and in the utilities. Installation of the new processing unity, including the replacement works of oil and water separators, gas lift compressors, chemical injection unit and other complementary systems and the commissioning of the new unity in production field.

Construction Period

07/2004 to 08/2005

Location

Vitória- ES

Client

Petrobras

Netherlands B.V. - PNBV

